Table of contents

Foreword.............................................................................................................................................. 7

Introduction
Anne WEYEMBERGH.................................................................................................................. 9

PART I
Case studies on the intervention of administrative law in the criminal law domain

Combatting trafficking in human beings: moving beyond labels with the EU’s multidisciplinary, integrated and holistic approach
Chloé BRIÈRE ............................................................................................................................... 19

The freezing of terrorists’ assets: preventive purposes with a punitive effect
Francesca GALLI ............................................................................................................................ 43

The case of money laundering. Real administrative procedure used in the detection of fraudulent transactions
Philippe DE KOSTER and Marc PENNA.................................................................................. 69

Multidisciplinary investigations into offences against the financial interests of the EU: a quest for an integrated enforcement concept
Katalin LIGETI and Michele SIMONATO ............................................................................... 81

The relationship between administrative and criminal sanctions in the new market abuse provisions
Robert KERT....................................................................................................................................... 95
Blurring boundaries between administrative and criminal enforcement of environmental law
Michael FAURÉ and Armelle GOURITIN................................. 109

The fiftieth shade of grey. Competition law, “criministrative law” and “fairly fair trials”
Antoine BAILLEUX................................................................. 137

PART II
Cross-cutting issues on the interplay between criminal and administrative law

The organization of administrative and criminal law in national legal systems: exclusion, organized or non-organized co-existence
Katja ŠUGMAN STUBBS and Matjaž JAGER................................. 155

The influence of the EU on the “blurring” between administrative and criminal law
Pedro CAEIRO................................................................. 171

Inter-state cooperation at the interface of administrative and criminal law
Michiel LUCHTMAN ................................................................. 191

Blurring boundaries between administrative and criminal law: from the perspective of an EU agency
Vincent JAMIN................................................................. 213

Criminal sanctions and administrative penalties: the quid of the ne bis in idem principle and some original sins
Christoffer WONG ................................................................. 219

Concluding remarks
Robert ROTH ................................................................. 247

List of contributors................................................................. 253